Allow the user to enter the stock ticker symbol (ie MSFT for Microsoft), number of shares and cost per share. Compute and display amount invested to be number of shares times cost per share.

Input	Processing	Output
Stock ticker as string Number of shares as int Cost per share as float	Amount invested = number of shares * cost per share	Ticker Amount invested as float + “invested”